Wood River

Luther Jones was in the district last week in connection with his sale of farm implements and stock.
A very successful business was held in the Wood River hall last Friday. An extensive program of music and games was carried out.

Dick Williams has just recovered from a mild attack of the flu, which was complicated by a slight subversion of the pericardium.

The usual epidemic of spring illness seems to have gotten away to a good start in this district.

The supper which was held in the hall last Wednesday under the auspices of the F. A. A. was well attended. The feature of the evening was a spirited debate on the desirability of a Compulsory Wheat Board.

Care of various villages, which have been interesting since last fall, are now beginning to be seen scattered along the main line.

Our charming sub-deb, Jean Jones, has been wearing a golden smile of late. We wonder.

Brooks

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Carlyle Dick, on Monday, March 13th, a daughter.

A box social and dance were held in Brookville hall on Friday, March 9. A fairly large crowd attended, and spent a pleasant evening. An interesting event of the evening was the raffish of the quilt which was made and donated by the ladies of the district. Mr.
Kullough Mullins is a few well-known works, and on behalf of the shareholders of the hall, moved a vote of thanks to the ladies and especially to Mrs. Herb MacLaren, for the financial aid given to the hall through their efforts.

The draw was then made by Master Thomas Lawrence, and the lucky number proved to be 14, which was held by Georgia Matern. The net proceeds of the raffish amount to $14.00.

Mrs. Miller gave a whist party on Wednesday night, sufficient guests to fill and make the ladies and gentlemen. A very enjoyable evening was spent, the prizes being won by Mrs. Lawrence's daughter, while Mrs. W. Mullins and P.
Dell carried off the laurels in the lively contest.

Mrs. Lawrence and Thomas, who have spent the past month with Mrs. Lawrence's daughter, Mrs. Geo. Matern, left on Monday for their home in North Dakota.

Arrangements are being made for a ball time, dance to be held in the near future. The date will be announced later.

The non-attendance of certain high school pupils at school, and to motivate the parents to this effect.
No further business, the meeting adjourned.

Miss Elsie McKelvey returned from a visit to Elmton the other day. She was accompanied by her little niece, Edith Cox.

Harry James has been appointed manager of the Ponoka C.F.A. Co-operative store as successor to Geo. N. Field.

The dance given in the town hall on Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Night Owl Club, was greatly enjoyed by those in attendance. A good, real time was had.

Several farmers were brought before Magistrate Turner on Wednesday on charges of operating their autos without a license. Fines ranging from seven to nine dollars were imposed.

Rev. W. J. James regrets that he was unable to reach Ponoka for service in St. Mary's Church on Sunday owing to the bad roads between Wetaskiwin and Ponoka.

Many of our readers will hear with regret of the death of R. P. Bell, which took place on December 24th at the home of his son-in-law, F. N. Young, Ravensburg, Ohio. Mr Bell was one of the early settlers in this district and was well known. He went to Ohio about six years ago where he made his home.

The Bonmark C.F.A. local held its yearly rally at the Ferryville hall last Friday evening, and a large crowd enjoyed the programme and dance put on by the Juniors. The prospects seem good for an increased membership this year. The Juniors now have 38 members, and a good many new members are coming in to the Senior local. The Bonmark orchestra furnished their usual excellent music.

Day by day, in every way, I am getting better and better.

A number of intimate friends of Mr and Mrs Albert Mill met at their home in the Trietram locality on Friday 9th inst., the event being a farewell to them on the eve of their departure to B.C.

The evening was spent in games, smart politeness and funny stories, in which everyone had to participate or pay a forfeit. Mr John Brown, the aged father of Mrs Mills, delighted everyone with a comic Scotch song "The Bonnie Wee Windie" which proved that in his younger days he must have been a splendid singer. During the evening silverware was presented to Mrs and Mr Mills from the friends who wished them to take with them some tangible expression of their love and regard. Mr E. J. Osseus, in a few well-chosen words, expressed the sentiments of all their friends when he said that the world in general looked upon the man who accumulated, or political prestige as the successful man. But in his opinion, the man or woman who reached the pinnacle of success, was the one who, coming into a community would sit the and move as to leave that community much the better for their having been there. Such can be said of Mr and Mrs Mills, for better friends and neighbors never lived than they. Mrs Mills, and son, Laverne, leave shortly for Toronto, her father, Mr Brown, travelling as far as Wapella, Saskatchewan. She will visit her sister Mrs Desjar, in Toronto, while Mr Mills finds a suitable location in B.C. The pleasant evening of (morning) came to a close by singing "Auld Lang Syne," and the best of wishes were extended to Mr and Mrs Mills in their new home.
